

Jansons Institute of Technology

Karumathampatti, Coimbatore – 641 659

Report

Name of the Program / Activity / Event / Others	NSS Special Camp
Date & No. of days	26.02.2019 to 04.03.2019
Organized by	NSS
In association with
Venue	Padhuvampalli village
Participants/ Beneficiaries	50 volunteers (II years)

Event brief (500 words with photo):

NSS unit of Jansons Institute of Technology functions actively to render credible service to the society. In this regard, Our NSS unit team stepped into the special camp at Padhuvampalli Village, which is 8 kms away from our college. The theme of the camp was “Youth for Sustainable Development”. About 50 volunteers participated in the camp. During this 7 day camp the following activities were carried out.

26.02.2019, Tuesday

The team with 50 members reached the village at 10.00 am to make necessary arrangements for the camp. NSS Programme officer Dr. K. Senthamil Selvan briefed about the survey activities. Then the volunteers were grouped to carry out a survey about the village and various committees were formed for the smooth conduct of the camp.

The camp was inaugurated at 2 pm with the NSS song. Dr. V. Nagarajan, Principal, JIT gave the presidential address and Mr. C. Francis Angelo, HM, Panchayat Union Primary School, gave the felicitation address and assured to give support for our camp.

27.02.2019, Wednesday

Volunteers started their day with prayer and exercise.

At 9 AM, the NSS volunteers were arrived and started reading daily newspaper and had healthy discussion over the different topics.

At 10 AM, an awareness programme on topic “Election Awareness” given by NSS Volunteers. The volunteers visited all the people in Padhuvampalli village and created the awareness about the importance of election and voting.

At 6 PM, cultural events were conducted.

28.02.2019, Thursday

Volunteers started their day with prayer and exercise.

At 9 AM, the NSS volunteers were arrived and started reading daily newspaper and had healthy discussion over the different topics.

In the morning session, the volunteers were participated in cleaning the Panchayat Union Primary School, Padhuvampalli.

At 2 PM, our NSS volunteer team collected dry leaves around the temple area and created a organic manure preparation pit, which is used to educate the students, volunteers and educate the village people about the organic farming.

At 6 PM, cultural events conducted for village people and the day ends with the report reading and deep sleep.

01.03.2019, Friday

Volunteers started their day with prayer and exercise.

At 9 AM, the NSS volunteers were arrived and started reading daily newspaper and had healthy discussion over the different topics.

On the fourth day, our NSS team organized sports event for school children and encourage them to participate in all the events effectively.

At 5 PM, the awareness drama about the self-cleanliness conducted for the village people.

02.03.2019, Saturday

Volunteers started their day with prayer and exercise.

At 9 AM, the NSS volunteers were arrived and started reading daily newspaper and had healthy discussion over the different topics.

At 10 AM, NSS volunteers organized YOGA programme for school children. All our NSS volunteers assisted them to make the programme fruitful and grand success.

At 2 PM, our college NSS Team organized debate programme on topic “Emerging technologies and its impacts” and “Awareness of Traditional Food”

At 3 PM, an awareness programme on Swatch Bharath was conducted for village people. And the day ended with cultural events.

03.03.2019, Sunday

Volunteers started their day with prayer and exercise.

At 9 AM, the NSS volunteers were arrived and started reading daily newspaper and had healthy discussion over the different topics.

The NSS volunteers started their field work at Padhuvampalli Mariamman temple and

Jansons Institute of Technology

Karumathampatti, Coimbatore – 641 659

Vinayagar Temple. They cleaned the entire temple premises. The entire day was utilized to clean the in and around area of the temple.

At 6 PM, the reviews of the NSS camp activities were conducted.

04.03.2019, Monday

Volunteers started their day with prayer and exercise.

At 9 AM, the NSS volunteers were arrived and started reading daily newspaper and had healthy discussion over the different topics.

The valedictory function started at 2 PM, Mr. C. Francis Angelo gave the presidential address. Prizes were distributed by our college NSS PO to the school children who performed well in the sports competitions conducted during the camp. With the great satisfaction we came back to our college.

Jansons Institute of Technology

Karumathampatti, Coimbatore – 641 659

Jansons Institute of Technology

Karumathampatti, Coimbatore – 641 659

Jansons Institute of Technology

Karumathampatti, Coimbatore – 641 659

Jansons Institute of Technology

Karumathampatti, Coimbatore – 641 659

Outcomes	The development of personality is achieved through community service. NSS camp was a eye opener for so many of the students. Also the village people are benefitted in various aspects.
Feedback	Good
Suggestions / Future actions	Expected more number of activities in forth coming years.