Event brief (500 words with photo):

The Webinar on "A Road Map to Data Visualization and its industry Use cases" was held on 27.04.2021 at 4.00 pm via online. The Event started by welcoming our Guest of Honor Mr.P.Ranjith, Analyst, Strategic Analytic and Insights Team, IQVIA by Ms.M.Vasundra of I year AI. Later, he gave striking introduction about data science and how it has been applied in real world problems .In Order to make a session an interactive one, he showcased an analytical question which stimulated our student's interest.

Some of the topics covered during the session are as follows,

- Data Visualization
- Life cycle of Data Analytics Project
- Industry use cases
- Glimpse on Machine Learning

The Closure of the event was given by Ms.J.V.Varshitha Rao of I year AI. The Session gave insights about how Data Visualization has been carried out in industries which in turn will help our budding engineers to grow better in their career.
