Event brief (500 words with photo):

Mono vision is Black and white photography holds a prominent place in our hearts and imaginations. While steeped in tradition and history, it remains an aesthetic choice of many photographers today, regardless of genre, method or subject matter. Show us how you are embracing the dynamic relationship between light, shade, and all the glorious tones in between.

Our aim is to discover photographers using black and white medium as an expression of their visual language.
