Examinations–Alleged complaint on violation of rules - November/December-
2019 Examination -Conduct of enquiry – Recommendations of the committee –
Punishment - Intimation -Regarding.

Ref : Complaint from the squad members dated : 31.10.2019

I invite your attention to the reference cited, wherein a complaint was made by the squad members stating that during the invigilation duty it was noticed that 13 students were being booked under malpractice of having possession of 13 cell phones during the conduct of laboratory examination held on 25.10.2019 for the subject ME8513.

In this connection, a standing committee was constituted to enquire into the issue. The committee enquired the faculty members and students on 24.02.2020, 07.03.2020 and 12.03.2020. On enquiry, it was observed from the external examiner that during the visit by the squad members, the students who had the possession of cell phones were booked under malpractice. But subsequently the seized phones of the students were returned to the students instead of sending them to the University after getting apology letters as per the instruction of the examination cell in-charge Thiru. P.Sivasamy. Only from the receipt of the instruction from the University and the zonal office, the college has collected the cell phones from the students. Thiru. Sivasamy who was associated with the exam cell of the college had also confirmed that he had collected the cell phones only after the repeated reminders from the University and Zonal office.

Thiru. P.Sivasamy and A.Sam Silva had simply returned the cell phones to the students instead of handed over them to the University by violating the rules of Anna University. He had failed to verify whether the cell phones returned by the students are in good condition or not.

The Principal has miserably failed in his duty and transferred the entire responsibility to the staff member viz Thiru. A. Sam Silva and P.Sivasamy on conduct of Examination.

After having a detailed deliberation and deposition made by the staff members and students of the college, the enquiry committee has recommended the following inter-alia which accepted by the University.

" Dr.Marlon Jones Touis the Principal of the college who is fully responsible of the conduct of the examination had totally failed in his duty and transferred the responsibility to Thiru. A. Sam Silva the exam cell co ordinator, Thiru. P.Sivasamy, a faulty member assisting the examination cell and Ms.S.Hema Josephine, the Chief Superintendent of theory examinations. Hence, he may be debarred from all the academic activities of Anna University including autonomous colleges under Anna University for a period of 3 years.

Accordingly, the Principal Dr.Marlon Jones Touis is hereby debarred from all the academic activities of Anna University including autonomous colleges under Anna University for a period of 3 years:
